A Visit to Mystic Seaport

The pround ship that is the last of the wooden whalers stands beautifully restored as visitors flock to see her. The "Charles W. Morgan" is handsome as you can see from this photo of her newly restored side. All of her time weakened timber has been replaced with new sound wood and the sides gleam with new paint.

Stern of the "L. A. Dutton" - a graceful fishing schooner from Boston. The Dutton is in fine shape, afloat and with her rigging and gear ready to go.

This view of Village Street shows some children headed for the Junior Museum. In the background is the Fishtown Chapel and the one room schoolhouse.

Bow on view of the Morgan - notice the plastic covered bow and port side which is now undergoing restoration work.

VISIT TO MYSTIC SEAPORT

The "Charles W. Morgan" is the jewel in the crown but its setting is of the finest. Those who enjoy sailing ships will be fascinated at the atmosphere which has been created to surround the Morgan. If you wonder how this town appeared to the visitor of 100 or more years ago, then you can satisfy your curiosity with a visit to Mystic. This trip is now within easy distance because of Route 195 - an hour and 45 minutes will bring you to this Connecticut home of the old whaler.

Cooperage, Edwards House, Mystic Press, Hoopmaker's Shop. The counting house is most interesting. It is built of granite. The high desk inside is straight from David Copperfield. The low safe is built right into the granite wall and a heavy iron door secures the vault. Edwards house is a charming little cottage with furniture and household utensils and children's toys out and in use as if the family was interrupted and would return at any second. The Mystic Press contains a rare bed press of ancient vintage but perfect working condition. On this press it was possible to turn out 40 pages per hour. Contrast this production with the modern rate of 8,500 pages per hour at which the page you are reading was produced.

The captain's quarters seem to be designed for a midget and the fo'castle is jammed with rude wooden bunks that appear to be made for Little Leaguers. It makes you wonder. These men of small stature and great heart went forth in small boats to do battle with the giants of the sea. These were days when a man was a man and not an image.

The big beams are mortised and tenoned fitting together without nails so that today they hold as strong as they ever did. The fireplace is large as a work area should be and this was the stove of this house. Tiny, triangular leaded panes of glass filled with bubbles are in the windows. This house is so complete that it even has its same ancient plaster. To get it here intact, the house was sawed in two and floated in on two barges.

Mattapoisett Yacht Club

On Saturday, July 13th, the Mattapoisett Yacht Club held the second race in its July Saturday senior series, with competition in three classes.

Myron Lewis' Fuzz II took the win in the handicap class. First place in both of the two Corinthian races went to Fred Farnham, skippering Diana. Harvey Pentleton's Swamp Fox won in the Beetle Cat division.

The handicap fleet of four boats sailed a 10.5 mile course, starting in the middle of the harbor opposite Ned's Point to Bow Bells Black Can 11 to Flashing White Bell 7, to finish middle of harbor opposite Ned's Point.

Lewis sailed his Fuzz II to victory in both elapsed and corrected time. Second place went to C. Young in Spindrift, almost two minutes later.

Ten boats participated in each of the two Corinthian contests. In both races the slate of winners was the same: F. Farnham in Diane, first; B. Mee in Irish Eyes, second; and A. McLean in Demo, third.

The Beetle Cats sailed a course starting at the race committee boat anchored off

Ned's Point to Sunken Ledge Black Can 5 to Barnard's Wharf MYC guide buoy to Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy and finishing at the race committee boat.

The fitful southwest wind, a light 5 knots and less at times, was an important factor in determining the winners.

Andy Anderson in Boat took an early lead, followed closely by Charles Pieper in Blue Cloud and Jimmy Barnes in Gay Lee Ann. When rounding the first marker H. Pentleton moved up to first place and C. Pieper was sixth.

During the third leg of the course, the already light wind died down and became spotty, causing the skippers to make various tacks to pick up any advantageous winds. H. Pentleton tacked toward Mattapoisett Neck and caught a shore breeze. Lorraine Roy in Milocodette tacked toward the Mattapoisett side of the harbor and also found a shore breeze which enabled her to move up from fourth to second place. A. Anderson and J. Barnes, staying more to the middle of the harbor, fell behind.

As they rounded the third marker, Harvey Pentleton was in the lead, followed by Lorraine Roy and Charles Pieper. They later crossed the finish in that order.

JUNIOR RACE

Steve Ruel's Lulu won the Corinthian class sail in the second Junior race in the July series at the Mattapoisett Yacht Club Wednesday, July 10th.

Eeyore, skippered by Dan Briggs, took the victory for the Beetle Cats.

The Corinthians sailed a course from the race committee boat in mid-harbor to Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy to Barnard's Wharf MYC guide buoy, to Molly's Cove MYC guide buoy and finish off the race committee boat.

The race began at 10:15 A.M. with Billy Mee in Irish Eyes leading the fleet around the course and Rick Reynolds in Iterate, second.

However, both boats were disqualified following the race for rounding the first course marker on the wrong side. This gave Ruel the win. Second went to Bill Stratton in Sophrosyne.

The Beetle Cats started five minutes later and sailed a course from the race committee boat to Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy to Ned's Point MYC guide buoy, to Barnard's Wharf MYC guide buoy and finish at the race committee boat.

While the rest of the fleet tacked out of the harbor, Dan Briggs, the last to start, tacked in to the harbor, gaining wind and a better slant. He rounded the windward marker with a substantial lead, coming in to place first. Jimmy Barnes in Gay Lee Ann was second, followed by Kathy Pieper's Blue Cloud.

OLD MAN'S EVENING RACE

C. Pieper skippered Blue Cloud to victory in the first Old Man's Evening Race for Beetle Cats held by the Mattapoisett Yacht Club Thursday, July 11th.

The race was the first of four scheduled for July and August.

B. Mee In Gremlin placed second while P. Briggs' Eeyore came in third.

The Beetle Cats sailed a course starting in the middle of the harbor opposite Ned's Point to Barnard's Wharf MYC guide buoy, to Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy, and finishing opposite Barnard's Wharf.

Blue Cloud made a good start with Gremlin close behind. Andy Anderson was third.

Rounding the second marker, Anderson tacked along Mattapoisett Neck to get a better wind slant and took the lead.

The last leg of the course soon became a tacking duel between C. Pieper and A. Anderson, and it looked like a very close finish. But almost at the finishing line Anderson fouled Pieper and then withdrew from the race. The win went to C. Pieper, skippering Blue Cloud. B. Mee in Gremlin placed second. P. Briggs' Eeyore was third.

GREAT JOB ON RECREATION AREAS

The road to Veteran's Park at Ned's Point has been newly blacktopped and it is a great improvement since winter and wear had taken its toll. The road was somewhat of an obstacle course with cars winding their way through the pot holes. Manny Nunes and crew now have it a smooth ribbon of asphalt prepared for the heavy summer traffic. The highway crew has also scraped the dirt roads around the light and the parking area so that they are level and smooth. It's a good job that will be well appreciated.

The barbeque grills have been erected at the park. This year, half of them almost face the right way.

The Highway Department has worked wonders with the Mattapoisett Public Beach. The flood this spring badly washed out the beach. The crew has replaced the sand washed out of the huge channel made by the flood and put the beach in very fine condition.

PUBLIC NOTICE TOWN OF MATTAPOISETT

The Board of Appeals will hold regular monthly hearings the third Thursday of each month. Application for variance must be filed at least two weeks in advance to allow for publication of notice of hearing.

Visitor from Mystic

Many Mattapoisett people rubbed their eyes and looked again at the sight in the harbor. Sure enough, it was a whaleship or at least a reasonable facsimile. The graceful vessel came in prettily under sail and cast anchor off the town wharf. From the distance of wharf to ship, you'd swear it was the Charles W. Morgan itself (except for the rigging) but her sternboard told the story. She was the Mystic Whaler out of Mystic, Connecticut and built as a smaller replica of a whaleship to be a cruise ship for the pleasure of summer vacationers. This was one port of call for the people on that cruise and they launched in to explore and enjoy the town as the townspeople trooped to the wharf and waterfront to enjoy the sight of the unusual ship. She is a beautiful replica complete even to the tryworks which are the barbeque works in this case.

Reception for George Avilas

MATTAPOISETT AUTHOR AT MUSEUM

Mr. and Mrs. George Avila chat with Mrs. Gunderson, center, who is the widow of one of the country's greatest glassmakers. Mrs. Gunderson shares with Mr. Avila a love of beautiful glassware.

Mr. Avila holds an example of the very beautiful glassware of the Pairpoint Company

Nearly one hundred guests attended the reception for Mr. and Mrs. George Avila held at the Mattapoisett Historical Society Museum. We were honored to have Mrs. Robert Gundersen of New Bedford and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cummings of Scotsdale, Arizona with us. Mr. Cummings is a former employee of the Pairpoint Company who now has his own glass factory known as the Crystal Palace.

The beautiful display of glass showed the various colors made through the different eras of Pairpoint Glass.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. David Todd, Mrs. Harry Erhard, Mrs. Clifford I. Tripp, Jr., Mrs. Joseph Mendes, Mrs. Charles Mendell, Miss Dorothy Fox and Miss Lydia Walker.

The Avilas have kindly presented a copy of the book to the Historical Society library.

PROMOTED TO MAJOR

David H. McCormack of Shell Beach Road, Mattapoisett, was recently promoted to the rank of major in the Army Reserve National Guard. He will serve as the s_2 of Headquarters Battery of the 102d Artillery Group in Fall River. Major McCormack is currently on field training with the group.

COUPLES CLUB COOKOUT

The Congregational Church Couples Club of Mattapoisett will have a cookout with swimming and games at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nahigyan on Saturday, July 20, starting at 6 P.M. Members are reminded to bring chairs, food, and place settings. Grilles, relishes, coffee and watermelon will be provided.

ON DEAN'S LIST

In recognition of outstanding achievement 239 students have been placed on the dean's list at Colby College. Among those students is William M. Milne, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Milne of Harbor Road, Mattapoisett. A freshman, Milne is a graduate of Old Rochester Regional High School.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF SCHOLARSHIP

Wednesday, July 17th, the Citizens' Scholarship members are asked to attend a very important meeting at 8 P.M. at the home of Mrs. David Goodenough, 25 North Street, Mattapoisett. This meeting is to make plans for the summer money making project of the group and as much help as possible is desired to have a successful project. Plans are to sell food at the Mattapoisett Yacht Club and at Ned's Point at the time of the regatta.

annual auction Wednesday night, July 24th, at 7:30, at Barden's Boat Yard on Town Wharf. Richard Bourne of Falmouth will be the auctioneer with a coterie of runners headed by auction chairmen, Theodore W. Lacey and Merrill Worthen.

The event is a popular prelude to the Congregational Summer Fair set for Saturday, July 27, on the church grounds and adjacent Main Street areas, opening at 10 A.M. The Fair has been a highlight of Marion's summer activities for many years. The auction, added four years ago, has attracted increasing crowds each year. All items on sale are donated by members and friends of the church.

Herbert Lyon and his decorations committee are planning to transform the Main and Front Street area into a colorful South-of-the-Border scene to illustrate the Fair's "Mexican Fiesta" theme. Each of the two dozen booths and tables will carry forward this theme as they offer books, gifts, baskets, food, white elephants, items for hobbyists, imports, flowers and vegetables, candy, clothing, grabs and children's toys.

Featured at the midway will be pony rides, tractor rides, a pet shop and a wide variety of games. Walter E. Owen, art teacher at New Bedford High School, will be on hand to do caricatures of Fair patrons. A live heifer also will be on hand to call attention to the church's current Heifer Project. The Sdiewalk Cafe will offer its customary varied menu, with lobster salad rolls topping the list. A gala day is promised for all ages.

MEMBERS ATTEND CONVENTION

Members of Florence Eastman Post 280, American Legion have returned from the American Legion State Convention at Boston. The 40/8 train participated Friday night in the 40/8 parade. Robert Nunes, John Raphael, Joseph Marcellino and members from Kingston, Wareham and Plymouth helped give candy and lolly pops.

On Saturday morning members visited at the Orphans' home in Jamaica Plain where gifts and ice cream were given to the children. Also a sum of money was donated to the nuns of the home. The nuns and the children rode the trains of the 40/8 around the town.

John Raphael was elected by the 10th District to represent them as national delegate at the National Convention in September at New Orleans, La.

The clam bake committee wishes that any Legion member that can help at waiting on tables to please let them know. The com-

Avant Garde Theatre

Avant Garde Theatre...Theatre of the Absurd...Call it what you will...Call it ridiculous...Call it irrational...Call it unreasonable...Call it foolish...But above all else, you must call it a profound, and provocative, and very personally felt experience.

It happened Sunday evening in the Bristol Auditorium at Old Rochester Regional High School. An extremely talented group of young people, composed of Old Rochester students and recent graduates, presented a pair of plays that are perfectly precious examples of absurd theatre: Eugene Ionesco's "The Bald Soprano", and Edward Albee's "The Zoo Story". Both these plays are so weird, and wild, and outright outlandish, that even the most professional and polished of acting groups would be taxed to present them with cunning and skill. Which is exactly what made Sunday evening's happening at ORRHS so extraordinary. That this group of teenagers could put on with such delicate finesse these two most difficult theatrical pieces, was a marvel to observe. With astonishing poise, they carried off their assigned words and actions. Their slick performances were superbly entertaining. Even those in the audience who considered the program to be utter nonsense (and I'm sure there were some) would have to sense sheer admiration for the actors.

The evening must be considered a triumph for Ward Abronski. Not only was he half the cast of "The Zoo Story" but also the director of "The Bald Soprano". It is obvious that this young man possesses a most sensitive and dedicated devotion to things theatrical. Also most deserving of mention is David Helfand, who was on stage throughout the entire presentation of both plays. He played Peter to Ward Abronski's Jerry in "The Zoo Story" and was also in the line up of remarkable characters seen in "The Bald Soprano". Others appearing in "The Bald Soprano" were: Karen Martin, George Fisher, Chris Hayward, Nancy Prescott and James Lawrence.

The Odd Couple Returns

The production crew of the Marion Center is preparing itself for a lot of hard work. The Odd Couple is back.

Since the last showing they have all been having bad dreams remembering the horrible mess the actors make. The thought of potato chips all over the floor, warm beer on the tables, spaghetti hanging from the walls and ashes on everything is enough to turn your stomach. They have the thankless job of cleaning up. But cleaning is only half of their job. The worst part is perfecting the details of the mess. They have to make sure that the beer is warm enough to gush out of the can and that the spaghetti is cooked enough to stick. In short they have to keep the mess in order. So the hard working volunteers are back to their dirty job of teaching the actors to be slobs.

Remember the dates, July 18, 19 and 20 for the repeat performances. The seating will be cabaret style. Reservations may be made by phoning Mrs. Lawrence Bidstrup, 748-1035; Mrs. Thomas McCarthy, 748-1077; or the Marion Art Center, 748-1266, during gallery hours (12 to 4 Tuesday through Saturday).

FAMILY REUNION

After a long absence, Mrs. Dorothy Warrington of London, England is visiting with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Victor W. Charman at their summer home at Crescent Beach.

At the same time, the Charmans are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. Marion A. Wishart of Phoenix, Arizona and her three daughters, Barbara, Elaine and Janet.

Later this week is expected Mrs. Kathleen Charman of Bridgeport, Connecticut, and Mr. and Mrs. Janet Voelker, another Charman daughter, with their two children, Donald and Nancy.

Still another daughter of the Charmans, Mrs. Dorothy Cook, of New Bedford, completes the family reunion, which promis to be a very happy one.

JUNIOR ACCOMPLISHMENT GROUP

The young people of Crescent Beach are invited to meet with Mr. Victor Charman at Raymond Hall at 10 A.M. on Thursday, July 18th, for the purpose of organizing a Junior Accomplishment Group.

Any young person who feels that he or she would like to assist the adults in the splendid work being done this season is welcome.

Many hands make light work, so, boys and girls, come out and give your valued assistance.

BRACE YOURSELF!!!

Those who read the story of Mattapoisett in the Sunday paper were astonished to learn that Mattapoisett's tax rate is "$3. per thousand". Since this must be the lowest in the nation it should set off a land rush similar to the opening of the Oklahoma territory. If any outsider reads this story, prepare for the stampede.

VISITED IN THE ADIRONDACKS

Miss Lydia LeB. Walker of North Street, Mattapoisett has returned from a visit to the Adirondacks where she was a guest of the George de Forest Bowditchs' of Blue Mountain Lake, New York, formerly of Mattapoisett. Mr. Bowditch, curator of the noted Adirondack Museum, allowed Miss Walker to examine his model for the layout and exhibition halls of his design for the million dollar new group of buildings now under construction for operation in 1969. Over 1,000 persons toured the museum in a single day during Miss Walker's stay to enjoy the permanent and special exhibits, located on Route 28 to Canada.

Also of interest to Miss Walker was the newly established Adirondack Art Center at Blue Mountain Lake, just opened and for the benefit of which a very successful auction was held while she was there. Mr. Bowditch was chief auctioneer together with Director Swinney, both of the Adirondack Museum.

Immediately prior to Miss Walker' s visit Mr. and Mrs. Bowditch were guests of Miss Walker, along with their two youngest, Elise and Barbie, for a week in Mattapoisett. They arrived by way of Bristol, Rhode Island, where they, and especially the senior Mrs. Harold Bowditch, were honor guests at the Bristol Art Museum's private view of an exhibition of paintings by the late, distinguished American artist, George de Forest Brush, loaned, in

NURSES ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEET

The Mattapoisett District Nurses Advisory Committee met at the Town Hall on Monday, July 1st. Welcomed as new members were Dr. Harold Woodcock, Dr. Charles Phillips, Mrs. Rodney Perkins, Mrs. Donald Nahigyan, Mrs. Marshall Ross and Mr. Albert Andrews.

Dr. Sacks of the State Health Department and Miss Ruth Hurley, consulting supervisor for public health nurses in Southeastern Massachusetts, were present and explained the various services available from the regional office. Miss Hurley also discussed the functions and objectives of the advisory committee.

The need of establishing a well child clinic in the town of Mattapoisett was discussed. The clinic would provide the services of a pediatrician with routine check up of each child and the administration of immunity
